Please note the revival calendars are coming but there has been a small issue with the shipping container that they use. If you have seen them elsewhere its because they were picked up by a member during a fellowship event.

Also, the changes to our dates from last month's conference were not made in time. We followed up directly following that meeting and they had already been printed. So revival will be as normal this year June 19th through June 26 (or until the good Lord is done).

Thanks, Cindy!
