Bible Trivia: (Answers to Last Week):

1. Whose tombstone was placed in Bethlehem? Bonus: It was not called a tombstone, but what did her husband call it, and whom is her husband? Rachel, “a pillar upon her grave”, by Jacob. Genesis 35:20.
2. Name three things that occurred in the Valley of Elah. Israel fought with Philistines, David kills Goliath of Gath with a sword, after knocking him out cold with one smooth stone, David took the giants head to Jerusalem, to name a few events. I Samuel 17: 1 – 58.
3. When Jesus knew the thoughts of some who questioned how he could claim casting out devils, what conclusion did he make to prove the Kingdom of God has come upon them? “But if I with the finger of God cast out devils...” Luke 11:18
4. How many Philistine foreskins did David have to bring to Saul to win his daughter to wife? 100 I Samuel 18:25. Bonus: Why did Saul require this? David was poor and could not afford a dowry. I Samuel 18:23 - 25. How many did David Bring? 200 I Samuel 18:27. And, which daughter did he get to marry? Name the two daughters, and which is younger and older. Married Michal the younger, as Merab was the older and given to Adriel by Saul, although she was rightfully due to David. I Samuel 18:17 – 19.
5. My name means fool. If it were not for my virtuous wife and all the food taken to the King of Israel, we would have been destroyed by about four hundred men. Who am I, and my wife? Bonus: Who is this King of Israel, and what happened to the fool and his wife? Nabal, Abigail, David, Nabal died, and Abigail became David’s wife. I Samuel 25.
