Bible Trivia: (Answers to Last Week):

The New Testament Church at Jerusalem had a matter that needed to be addressed, because of a vacant position in the Church. Clue: The number of the membership was about 120. Answers are found in Acts 1: 15 – 26.

1. What was the vacant position? Treasure, bishoprick, office, or in charge of finances for Church.
2. Who vacated the position, and how? Judas Iscariot, hanged himself (see Matthew 27:5)
3. What was the requirement for the position? Had to be a member with baptism of John The Baptist. Verses 21 & 22.
4. Two men were selected to fill the position, but only one was chosen after the Church prayed. What are the two mens' names, and who was selected and numbered with the eleven? Joseph called Barsabas who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. Verse 23, Matthias was chosen.
5. Who moderated the business meeting? Peter, verse 15.

Bible Trivia: (Answers Next Week)

1. Who needs friends, when you have friends like Job? Name his four Friends, and which ones were supposed to be older and wiser, and which one is the younger?
2. Job was given twice as much as he had before. He had also how many sons and how many daughters? And, what was the name of the first?
3. Why was Paul and Silas thrown in prison?
4. What happen to Paul and Silas before they were thrown in jail?
5. Why were they released from the Phillipian jail?

“God uses present circumstances to prepare us for the future.” Read about the shepherd boy David, who was prepared to face off with the giant. I Samuel 17:37

What should I do (action)? _____
