Susan was part of the number one bowling team at her Metro Parks Disabilities Program this week. This league bowls fall and spring on Tuesdays at PlaMor Lanes. She had a bowling average of 95.5. This is the first year she has been on the number one team.

There are no Birthdays or Anniversaries this week. No specific prayer requests were received. I know everyone knows someone who needs our prayers.

I said a Prayer for you today and know God must have heard.

I felt the answer in my heart
although He spoke no word.
I didn't ask for wealth or fame.

I knew you wouldn't mind.
I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind.

I asked that He'd be near you
at the start of each new day,
to grant you health and blessings
and friends to share the way.

I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small.

But it was for His loving care
I prayed the most of all

On behalf of everyone at Church, Thank You Cindy and Lisa for the visual display. Sometimes we take for granted what his love means to us. It started coming back (at least to me) as each word was added.

Momma, Sheila, and I left Friday morning going to West Tennessee for Homecoming at my Grandparents church. This was printed Thursday Night.

I did not receive any Pastor comments, which worked out to be great. This week and this week only, we have a few words for him.

Thank You for Being Our Pastor
Today, we want to say thank you for how you walk in truth
To share God's Word, salvation, life
That will each soul renew.

Thank you for the time you spend
The hours you gladly give,
Unfolding of God's perfect way
The only way to live.

Thank you for your shepherding,
Leading on the upward path,
For prayerful concern and visitation,
Caring from the heart.

Thank you for how you are fulfilling
The call of God you heard,
Sharing of the gift He gave
To bless us with His Word.

Thank you for your walk in Him
For trusting God each day,
Gleaning of the endless wisdom
For all The Lord would say.

Thank you for your hand of grace
Stretched forth with loving care,
We thank our God for you
As we lift you up in prayer.
