Visiting Preacher

Bro Chris Woodard preached last Sunday from Luke 9:51-62

He spoke of this day in Jesus's life and what others chose to do with Jesus on this day. Jesus was making his way to Jerusalem to fulfill his role as our Savior. Samaria rejected him and his salvation. His disciples reacted to this with a desire to punish rather than love. The next three people reacted to Jesus with excuses rather than an immediate desire to serve Him. Bro Woodard compares these encounters with how we react today to Jesus.

Pray without Ceasing

A very good friend of the Sharpe family was recently diagnosed with cancer

Bro Leon White is home from the hospital following surgery.

Pray for those who missed last Sunday's service whatever reason.

Pray that the Lord will bring the pastor to our church.

Brother Woodard encouraged sinners to seek God today.

He encouraged Christians to humble themselves before God to seek his will and serve Him today.

YOU THROW THE CATS OVERBOARD AND I'LL TELL YOU WHERE I FOUND THE BRANCH

I am proud to be from the South-where tea is sweet and accents are sweeter; summer starts in April; front porches are wide and words are long; macaroni and cheese is a vegetable; pecan pie is a staple; Y'all is the only proper pronoun; chicken is fried and biscuits come w/ gravy; everything is darling and someone is always getting their heart blessed. Have a good day y'all!

Only a Southerner can show or point out to you the general direction of "yonder."

Southerners make friends while standing in lines, and we talk to everybody - everywhere! (My Dalton hates this)

Only a Southerner knows the difference between a hissy fit and a conniption fit, and that you don't "HAVE" them, you "PITCH" them.

Southern hospitality is a way of life in the South; an easiness and friendliness with people that makes them feel welcomed.

Southerners know that no matter how old you are, your father is "Daddy" and your mother is "Mama". And Granny is Granny.

It can get so hot in the South; we have to spray the chickens down to keep them from laying fried eggs.
