Pray without Ceasing

Jennifer has a friend who is on life support due to a tick bite. They have placed her in a coma. They do not know if she will have serious health problems in the future.

Kyle and Casey as they are getting older and are away from the church they grew up in.

Dillon as he is going back and forth from school.

We have had a lot of prayer requests recently and it is good to see some of our members doing better.

Continue to remember those who have health problems.

Remember those that are lost. God will not give up on them, how could we?

Brother Dillon preached last Sunday about Leaning on GOD. Proverbs 3-5 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. Living your life the way you felt that moment that you were saved. We get impatient and stop leaning on God. Everything happens on his time. Put your agenda in pencil. Then when god tells you what he wants you to do put it in pin.

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Matthew 11-15

Mark 4-9

Matthew 13-9

Revelations 2-7 and 2-11

God gave us two ears and one mouth. So we can listen twice as much as we talk.

One advantage of talking to yourself is that you know at least somebody's listening. — Franklin P. Jones

I know that you believe you understand what you think I said, but I'm not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant

History repeats itself because no one listens the first time. — Anonymous

It's a rare person who wants to hear what he doesn't want to hear. — Dick Cavett

My wife says I never listen to her. At least I think that's what she said. — Anonymous

If you want your spouse to listen and pay strict attention to every word you say, talk in your sleep.— Anonymous
