Pastor's Comments

Though hearts were heavy last week over the passing of Sister Virginia Clemons, the Lord blessed our services. With the singers, their families, and other visitors, there were about thirty additional attendees at our morning service and a few more came in for the meal and singing. Most of our members stayed for the singing and I commend you for supporting the church. I really believe the singings will prove beneficial to the spiritual strength of the church. I'm looking forward to the four Fifth Sunday Singings coming up this year.

Following is an article I found many years ago. Linda keeps it on our refrigerator.

God's Advice For the New Year

If you haven't made your New Year's resolutions yet, how about these from Paul's letter to the Romans?

Let us have no imitation Christian love. Let us have a genuine break with evil and a real devotion to good. Let us have real warm affection for one another as between brothers and a willingness to let the other man have the credit.

Let us not allow slackness to spoil our work and let us keep the fires of the Spirit burning as we do our work for God.

Base your happiness on your hope in Christ. When trials come, endure them patiently; steadfastly maintain the habit of prayer

Give freely to fellow Christians in want, never grudging a meal or a bed to those who need them. And as for those who try to make your life a misery, bless them. Don't curse, bless.

Share the happiness of those who are happy, and the sorrow of those who are sad. Live in harmony with one another. Don't become snobbish but take a real interest in ordinary people. Don't become set in your own opinions.

Don't pay back a bad turn to anyone. Don't say, "It doesn't matter what people think," but see that your public behavior is above criticism.

As far as your responsibility goes, live at peace with everyone. Never take vengeance into your own hands, my dear friends; stand back and let God punish if He will...

Don't allow yourself to be overpowered with evil. Take the offensive – overpower evil by good! (Romans 12, Phillips translation).
