June 14th is Flag Day

On May 30, 1916, President Woodrow Wilson issued a presidential proclamation establishing a national Flag Day on June 14. The day commemorates the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the official flag of the United States.

Pray without Ceasing

Billy's friend, Mitch, who has taken on fostering 2 children.

Ian for the dangerous job he does may God protect him.

Virginias Grandson and the dangerous job he does as a fireman.

Pray for the Lord's Supper service, and the revival

Donald's CT scan yesterday, the cancer has shrunk 30%. God has it in his hands.

Laughter is the best revenge for Anger

Going over our church finances I found a receipt from a local paint store signed by someone named Christian. I wasn't aware of anyone buying paint, so I called the store to point out its mistake. "I'm sorry," I told the manager, "but there are no Christians here at First Baptist Church."

A new pastor was visiting in the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was at home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door.

Therefore, he took out a business card and wrote 'Revelation 3:20' on the back of it and stuck it in the door.

When the offering was processed the following Sunday, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, 'Genesis 3:10.'

Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock.' Genesis 3:10 reads, 'I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid for I was naked.'

What is one of the silliest things you did as a kid?

We lived in Smith County in this house that had a large L shaped porch. One day I saw my brother coming up the road on the horse and he yelled at me to open the gate. I got up and instead of going around to the end of the porch I thought I would just jump at the corner. I didn't make it and fell about 5 feet down. I told Opal Stockton, who was sitting on the porch, that I thought I broke my back and she started laughing. I didn't want my brother to see me cry so I got up and opened the gate.

The blessed Savior wrote my name when I was born again,
He wrote it when He saved my soul;
He wrote that I had made aright my ev'ry sinful wrong,
He wrote my name on heaven's roll.

*CHORUS: He wrote my name way up in glory,
He saved my soul from sin and shame.
I never shall forget the day
The blessed Savior wrote my name.*

I'll be no stranger when I reach my home in glory land,
My name is in the Book of Life;
The blessed Savior wrote it when He saved my soul from sin,
He saved my soul from sin and strife.

*CHORUS: He wrote my name way up in glory,
He saved my soul from sin and shame.
I never shall forget the day
The blessed Savior wrote my name.*

If I should live a thousand years upon this earth below,
I never could forget the day;
That Jesus wrote my name within the blessed Book of Life,
And took my many sins away.

*CHORUS: He wrote my name way up in glory,
He saved my soul from sin and shame.
I never shall forget the day
The blessed Savior wrote my name.*

What is one of the silliest things you did as a kid?

Mother made sure I could tie my shoes when I began first grade, so she questioned me every day when I'd come home from school and could tell that this same boy tied my shoes for me. I confessed that well...I'd been untying them.

There's a lighthouse on a hillside that overlooks life's sea.
When I'm tossed He sends out a light, light that I might see.
And the light that shines in darkness now, will safely lead me on
If it wasn't for the lighthouse, this ship would sail no more.

Oh I thank God for the lighthouse I owe my life to Him
King Jesus is the lighthouse upon the rocks of sin
He has shone a light around me That I could clearly see
If it wasn't for the lighthouse, then where would this ship be.

Everybody that lives around us says tear the lighthouse down
You know the big ships they don't sail by this way no more so what's the use of it standing 'round?
Ahh, but then my mind goes way on back to that stormy night, when just in time, oh thank God I saw the light T'was the light from that old lighthouse that still stands up there on a hill.

Oh I thank God for the lighthouse, I owe my life to Him
King Jesus is the lighthouse, Upon the rocks of sin
He has shone a light around me, that I could clearly see
If it wasn't for the lighthouse, then where would this ship be.

Oh, If it wasn't for the lighthouse, then where would this ship be.

Thanks for participating in the Meet a Member. It is nice getting to know everyone a little better. When I get back in August, there will be a test! Michelle
