Remember in Prayer

It was so good to see Don at church on Sunday. His MRI came back clean! They are waiting on the PET scan. Please remember Don and Jean.

Pray for Cindy's Brother-in-law and also her Brother.

Remember Virginia's friend, Harriet who recently had a stroke. She is starting to improve.

Virgil was unable to be with us on Sunday. Also, their son Tim is having back problems. Remember both of them in your prayers.

Mary Jo tripped and hurt her leg. Remember her Brother's family as they continue to grieve.

Barry Quinn has improved enough to go to work a few days. This is encouraging.

Pray for the lost who have attended our church.

Pray for our country. Pray that our government will come together for the good of our Nation. The path we are on is not the way we need to be going.

Pray for Brother Armour that he will preach what God wants us to hear. Which is usually, not what we want to hear, but NEED to hear.

Sunday School Not just for children anymore

Brother Armour talked about coming to Sunday School. A New Year is the perfect time to start learning more about GOD. And what better Teacher's than Brother Lanier and Brother Terry Parker.

Cindy commented about reading the bible is different than understanding what it means. She said the Sunday School Teacher's explain it in a way that brings it to a true understanding.

In the beginning of 2012, the suggestion was made to read the bible this year. Cindy said, and I can agree, it will take me more than one year to read it.

I bought the Bible Dictionary and Concordance and find that I am looking up at least two/three words in every chapter. I am ashamed to say, I have never read the bible before. My gift to Jesus was knowledge so I guess I will start to keep my promise to him.

Nine-year-old Joey was asked by his mother what he had learned in Sunday School. Well, Mom, our teacher told us how God sent Moses behind enemy lines on a rescue mission to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When he got to the Red Sea, he had his engineers build a pontoon bridge, and all the people walked across safely. He used his walkie-talkie to radio headquarters and call in an air strike. They sent in bombers to blow up the bridge and all the Israelites were saved. "Now, Joey, is that REALLY what your teacher taught you?" his mother asked. "Well, no, Mom, but if I told it the way the teacher did, you'd never believe it!"

God with Us
Women's Fellowship

Our January meeting will be this Tuesday the 15th. The Speaker will be Sister Jean Dyer from Mt. Calvary. Jean has a great knowledge of the bible and I can't wait to hear what The Lord has planned for her to tell us.

Our February meeting will be the 19th. The Speaker will be Sister Rhonda Oliver of Grace (in Hendersonville) I have heard her teach on marriage. I left that lesson with a lot of needed knowledge. If the Lord is willing, this will be her topic for the evening.

Please be prepared for a love offering to be taken up for Amanda Clark, mother of Addyson Clark. We feel she needs a little Tender Loving Care at this time in her life. Sister Tracey Armour is going to use that money to put together a nice basket for Amanda Clark. Most of you know what she has been going through and we just want to do something special for her. Make sure chocolate is in the basket!

We would love for you to attend. I think you will be greatly blessed. Please pray for this meeting.

The God with us Women's Fellowship meets every 3rd Tuesday of the month at 6:30p.m at Faith Missionary Baptist Church.(2241 Burbank Ave. Nashville, Tn. 37210)

I don't remember getting old

I don't remember growing old, but obviously I did
Seems like only yesterday I was just a country kid
Running through the meadow and fresh-plowed fields of dirt
With stubbed toes and skinned knees and
Fall's that really hurt

Picking flowers and hickory nuts that grew along the lane
Wading streams and swimming holes and playing in the rain.
Wearing faded shirts and overalls with patches on the knees
From playing marbles in the dirt and climbing in the trees.

Tumbling in the barn loft filled with new mown hay
Plowing corn and milking cows on a sweaty summer day,
Shelling corn for cornbread to be carried over the hill
On the sweaty back of an old mule to be ground at the mill

The county church upon the hill Salvation full and free
Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That Saved a Wrench like me

Some dreams have long since faded for all the things we did.
We try to relive those times in the lives of our grandkid's

And life goes on an endless chain changing day by day.
For now I find old age comes on and youth has slipped away.
But still we chase those rainbows and the elusive pot of gold.
I have lots of memories but I don't remember growing old.

Thanks Momma

What is one of your favorite gospel songs? "I'll Fly Away

What is your day of the week? Sunday

What is your favorite color? Blue

What is your favorite Ice Cream? Death by Chocolate

What is one of the silliest things you did as a child?

1. As a small child I stood in horror watching a neighbor wring off a chicken's head. Then he looked at me and said, "Boy, you're next!" I tore off screaming and ran to my grandmother's house with the neighbor in hot putsuit, declaring when he got there first that he had not touched the boy.

2. While visiting my grandfather in Ridgetop, I was asked to watch his ice house and take the money for the ice from the folks, saying they would give him the right money. The ice house was in between a store and a jail. A couple of local boys came by and wanted to play in the jail, so I joined them. I laid on one cot in one cell and one of the other boys laid on the other cot in another cell. The third boy decided he would try the padlock on my cell. We warned him that the Constable who lived down the street would have to come up and unlock it but he immediately snapped the lock and the Constable had to come and unlock the cell. Didn't know you had an ex-jailbird in the church, did you?

I could pick just one,, so I used both.

Some bright morning when this life is over
I'll fly away
To a home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away

I'll fly away oh glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have grown
I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison walls has flown
I'll fly away

I'll fly away oh glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joys shall never end
I'll fly away

I'll fly away oh glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away
