Our January meeting that was scheduled for the 15th was postponed to the 22nd due to unpredictable weather. Sister Jean Dyer from Mt. Calvary will still be the Speaker. Jean has a great knowledge of the bible and I can't wait to hear what The Lord has planned for her to tell us.

Our February meeting will be the 19th. The Speaker will be Sister Rhonda Oliver of Grace (in Hendersonville) I have heard her teach on marriage. I left that lesson with a lot of needed knowledge. If the Lord is willing, this will be her topic for the evening.

Please be prepared for a love offering to be taken up for Amanda Clark, mother of Addyson Clark. We feel she needs a little Tender Loving Care at this time in her life. Sister Tracey Armour is going to use that money to put together a nice basket for Amanda Clark. Most of you know what she has been going through and we just want to do something special for her. Make sure chocolate is in the basket!

We would love for you to attend. I think you will be greatly blessed. Please pray for this meeting.

The God with us Women's Fellowship meets every 3rd Tuesday of the month at 6:30p.m at Faith Missionary Baptist Church.(2241 Burbank Ave. Nashville, Tn. 37210)

There is Power in the Blood

Would you be free from the burden of sin?
 There's pow'r in the blood, pow'r in the blood;
 Would you o'er evil a victory win?
 There's wonderful pow'r in the blood.

There is pow'r, pow'r, wonder working pow'r

In the blood of the Lamb

There is pow'r, pow'r, wonder working pow'r

In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Would you be free from your passion and pride?
 There's pow'r in the blood, pow'r in the blood;
 Come for a cleansing to Calvary's tide;
 There's wonderful pow'r in the blood.

(Repeat Chorus)

Would you be whiter, much whiter than snow?
 There's pow'r in the blood, pow'r in the blood;
 Sin stains are lost in its life giving flow.
 There's wonderful pow'r in the blood.

(Repeat Chorus)

Would you do service for Jesus your King?
 There's pow'r in the blood, pow'r in the blood;
 Would you live daily His praises to sing?
 There's wonderful pow'r in the blood.

(Repeat Chorus)

History of “Happy Birthday to you”

It is the world's most well-known and popular song. This amazingly sturdy four-line ditty began its life in 1893. Written by two Sisters from Kentucky. Teacher's Mildred, and Patty Hill. It was originally entitled “Good Morning to All,” and intended as a classroom greeting from teachers to students:

*Good morning to you
Good morning to you
Good morning, dear children
Good morning to all.*

The Hills' modest tune was first published in 1893 as part of a songbook. Over the next 30 years it spread. Then it became the more generic “Good Morning to You,” with the name of whomever the song was being sung to inserted in the third line. This minor but significant change brought it a little closer to its final version. To this day, no one knows for sure who wrote the new words to the song, or exactly when it happened. “Happy Birthday to You” first appeared in a songbook in 1924.

Aided by the advent of radio and sound movies, this new stanza became hugely popular and soon overshadowed the original lyric. By the mid-'30s, the celebratory tune had appeared in several films and a Broadway musical, and had been used for Western Union's first singing telegram. It was so widely heard and sung that many assumed it was public domain.

When the melody showed up in the Irving Berlin musical As Thousands Cheer, uncredited and uncompensated, a third Hill sister, Jessica, filed suit. In court she demonstrated the obvious link between “Happy Birthday to You” and “Good Morning to All,” securing a copyright for her sisters. Unfortunately Mildred was too late to benefit, having died in 1916.

It has been sung hundreds of millions of times each year for over three-quarters of a century.

It has been heard in outer space, at baseball stadiums, in movies and in domiciles from the White House to the most remote backwoods shack in Mississippi.

Now that I'm older, here's what I've discovered:

1. I started out with nothing, and I still have most of it.
2. My wild oats have turned into prunes and all-bran.
3. I finally got my head together, and now my body is falling apart.
4. Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
5. Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
6. If all is not lost, where is it?
7. It is easier to get older than it is to get wiser.
8. Some days, you're the dog; some days you're the hydrant.
9. I wish the buck stopped here; I sure could use a few.
10. Kids in the back seat cause accidents.
11. Accidents in the back seat cause kids.
12. It's hard to make a comeback when you haven't been anywhere.
13. The only time the world beats a path to your door is when you're in the bathroom.
14. If God wanted me to touch my toes, he'd have put them on my knees.
15. When I'm finally holding all the cards, why does everyone want to play chess.
16. Its not hard to meet expenses . . . they're everywhere.
17. The only difference between a rut and a grave is the depth.
18. These days, I spend a lot of time thinking about the hereafter . . .
I go somewhere to get something, and then wonder what I'm hereafter.
19. Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
20. DID I SEND THESE TO YOU BEFORE.....??????

Thanks Terry

I found this as I was going through some papers. This was right after I had one of my surgeries.

Teacher vs. Student

TEACHER: Simon, do you say prayers before eating?

SIMON: No sir, I don't have to, my Mom is a good cook.

TEACHER: Why are you late?

STUDENT: Class started before I got here.

TEACHER: Clyde, your composition on 'My Dog' is exactly the same as your brother's.. Did you copy his?

CLYDE: No, sir. It's the same dog.

TEACHER: Millie, give me a sentence starting with 'I.'

MILLIE: I is..

TEACHER: No, Millie..... Always say, 'I am.'

MILLIE: All right... 'I am the ninth letter of the alphabet.'

What is one of the silliest things you did as a child?

I guess you could say I was accident prone. By the time I was 7, I had broke both arms, burn my whole arm, and cut both feet to the tune of 60 stitches! I hated to wear shoes, in fact, I still hate it. When I broke my arm the 2nd time I was showing off to my sister Michelle how I could do this wonderful trick. I could swing on the bar that held the clothes line, let go of the bar and put my hand right under my bottom. It was really cool because I could turn my arm just right and land right on it! Broke it right in half! I bet my momma wondered if I was going to live to be 10!

Whenever I hurt myself I would always hide it. When I cut my foot the first time in Japan, I sat on the steps until someone walked up and found me. I could have bled to death. That was the time I got a total of 50 stitches! I was around 4 at the time. I still remember that jar that I stepped on and the stairs that I sat on. Funny the things you can remember and the things that you can't.

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me....
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind, but now, I see.

T'was Grace that taught...
my heart to fear.
And Grace, my fears relieved.
How precious did that Grace appear...
the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares...
we have already come.
T'was Grace that brought us safe thus far...
and Grace will lead us home.

The Lord has promised good to me...
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be...
as long as life endures.

When we've been here ten thousand years...
bright shining as the sun.
We've no less days to sing God's praise...
then when we've first begun.
