Vacation Bible School

The first meeting of the VBS Committee was held Sunday following the Church service. The decision was made to "kick off" VBS on Sunday night, June 2nd, at 6:00 with a meet and greet. We will have refreshments, registration and a devotional.

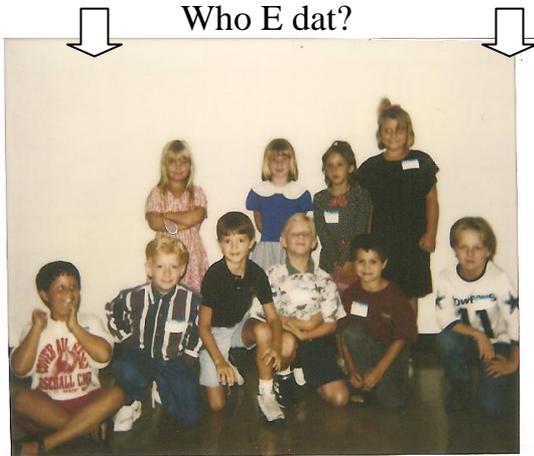

Vacation Bible School will be held Monday the 3rd of June, Tuesday the 4th of June and Wednesday the 5th of June from 9a.m. - 12p.m. Someone will be at the church, each day, from 8a.m. until 6:00 p.m. for parents who need to drop their children off early or pick their children up later.

We will end on Wednesday night at 7pm with A devotional and handing out of certificates.

We ask that you please, please be in prayer for this event. We are going to try very hard to reach out to the neighbor. We are looking for any ideas that anyone might have to make this happen. The more people we can reach out to the better. In addition, consider bringing your own family members, i.e; grandchildren, nieces and nephews, etc. This is a good way to save day care for three days!!

In addition, pray for teachers and helpers. We need the Lords hands all over this. We want him to tell us what we need to do. So please open your hearts to his will. We know we will be limited to the number of helpers because we have planned this during the day, but I feel that if the Lord wants you to help in this event that he will make a way for you to do it!

Those of you that attended this meeting please let me know if I have missed anything. We are planning to meet every Sunday after church service. Hopefully, each meeting will be some what short. We may have to get longer as we see the need. I know everyone will not be able to make it from time to time but please attend if you can. We need EVERYONES input on this. THANKS!! Cindy

I know Dodger and that may be Kayla and Kari behind Dodger. The two on the right, Kyle and Kalyn Callis?

My Salvation

His love is like a light that shines for all the world to see,
And one cold January night, His light did shine on me.
Conviction was upon my heart poured down like sheets of rain;
I knew to Him I had to turn to ease the guilt and pain.

But I ran from Him I know not why; young hearts can't understand
And sometimes pride can hold you back like a restraining hand.
But then the pain it got so bad, I thought my heart would break
I knew down deep inside of me that first step I should take.

And then His hand reached down for me, I felt it standing there
I sought His face and His alone down on my knees in prayer.
I didn't care who saw me then, my pride was gone you see;
All I could think about was CHRIST, that cross and Calvary.

I prayed to Him til I prayed through, He knew just what I felt;
And when I put my trust in Him, He saved me where I knelt.
He saved me, oh He saved my soul, was all my heart could say;
Though only 12 years old that night, I feel the same today.

Praise God He still can do for you, what He has done for me;
Through all the ages of the world, His love still sets men free.

What is one of the silliest things you did as a child?

I always loved to make mudpies, but when I was about 7 or 8 years old, I really made some great pies. My daddy always had a workshop and one day I saw him mixing up some concrete out of a very large bag. I got the bright idea that I could make some wonderful pies with that mix because it set up really nice. So here I go, (without my Daddy's approval I might add) and I mix it all up and pour it into my little tin pots and pans. I was so proud of myself and went off to allow the pies to "set." Much to my surprise when I returned to retrieve my pies for my dollies, I found I couldn't remove them from my pots and pans. Unfortunately I had to throw my little cooking items away and didn't get any new ones until Christmas (which was about 6 months). I learned a very valuable lesson that day. Never do anything without permission from your parents and of course, I try to carry that over to my spiritual life now. I try never to attempt anything or do anything without my Heavenly Father's "permission."

Next week's meet a member

Soon we'll come to the end of life's journey and perhaps we'll never meet any more. Till we gather in Heaven's bright city. Far away on that beautiful shore.

If we never meet again this side of Heaven And we struggle thru this world and its strife

There's another meeting place somewhere in Heaven By the side of the river of life.

Where the charming roses bloom forever And where separation's come no more.

If we never meet again this side of heaven ,I will meet you on that beautiful shore

O, so often we're parted with sorrow, Benedictions often quicken our pain. But we never shall sorrow in heaven. God be with you till we meet again.

If we never meet again this side of Heaven And we struggle thru this world and its strife

There's another meeting place somewhere in Heaven By the side of the river of life.

Where the charming roses bloom forever And where separation's come no more.

If we never meet again this side of heaven ,I will meet you on that beautiful shore

O they say we shall meet by the river Where no storm clouds ever darken the sky and they say we'll be happy in heaven in the wonderful sweet by and by

If we never meet again this side of Heaven And we struggle thru this world and its strife

There's another meeting place somewhere in Heaven By the side of the river of life.

Where the charming roses bloom forever And where separation's come no more.

If we never meet again this side of heaven ,I will meet you on that beautiful shore.
