Pray without Ceasing

Brother Quinn had a full body scan. Nothing showed up. He was hoping to go home on Saturday.

While Mayrene was visiting James, somebody broke into their house. They took a few things but luckily Maryrene was not at home. Things can be replaced.

Brother Don is continuing with his treatment. Pretty soon he should get about a month between treatments!

Elder Dyer asked that the church pray for his daughter, and young boy that goes to his church. Both are having some serious health problems.

Brenda is thankful that Shelly has found a Missionary Baptist Church in Hendersonville? She was going on Sunday pray that she will continue to go.

Irene met with her cardiologist. The heart is good. The A- Fib can be controlled with medicine. He gave the o.k. for the knee replacement. That will be scheduled again.

Pray for our Church that we will find the right Preacher.

Pray for the families affected by the Boston Bombs. It is sad that it takes something like that to bring our country together.

Happy Anniversary

A kindergarten teacher was walking around observing her classroom of children while they were drawing pictures. As she got to one girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."

Retiree Q and A

Question: What's the biggest gripe of retirees?

Answer: There is not enough time to get everything done.

Question: Why don't retirees mind being called seniors?

Answer: The term comes with a 10% percent discount.

Question: Why are retirees so slow to clean out the basement, attic or garage?

Answer: They know that as soon as they do, one of their adult kids will want to store stuff there.

I used to dread getting older because I thought I would not be able to do all the things I wanted to do, but now that I am older, I find that I don't want to do them.

What is one of the silliest things you did as a child?

As a young teen, my hamster had a litter of babies. Only one survived. Mom told me multiple times to leave it alone. One day I had it in the palm of my hand playing with it. When Mom busted in my room, unannounced, I cupped my other hand over the baby. It bit me in the palm of the hand so hard I ended up throwing it straight up in the air. The poor thing hit the ceiling pretty hard. Needless to say the hamster didn't survive and if looks could kill, from my mother, I wouldn't be here today. I got in a lot of trouble for this!

Next week's meet a member

Life is easy, when you're up on the mountain
And you've got peace of mind
Like you've never known
But then things change and you're down in the valley
Don't lose hope for you're never alone

[Chorus]

For the God on the mountain is still God in the valley
When things go wrong He'll make them right
And the God of the good times, is still God of the bad times
And the God of the day is still God of the night

V. 2

You talk of faith when you're up on the mountain
Oh, but the talk comes so easy
When life's at its best
But its down in the valley of trials and temptations
That's where faith is really put to the test

For the God on the mountain is still God in the valley
When things go wrong He'll make them right
And the God of the good times, is still God of the bad times
And the God of the day is still God of the night

For the God on the mountain is still God in the valley
When things go wrong He'll make them right
And the God of the good times, is still God of the bad times
And the God of the day is still God of the night

And the God of the day is still God of the night
