Preacher: I was preaching right along about Jesus' ministry, when I said, "And Jesus went about the countryside healing people and casting out deacons." I didn't notice the slip, but a murmur spread across the congregation. The murmur turned into giggles, then into laughter as I continued without missing a beat. I finally had to ask why everyone was laughing. I'm afraid I had to wrap things up then.

Preachers Kid: When I was a kid my dad was preaching one Sunday and my mother had taken the kids to the Sunday school room in the church basement. We could hear the preaching above us and if we got loud enough they could hear us. Midway through I clearly heard my father yell "Can you hear me down there" (He was saying that God does not always shout in audible ways to get out attention. The church broke loose in uncontrollable laughter as they heard my voice rise through the floor saying "I hear you just fine dad- what do you want?"

Pastor's Comments

I talked at length with Brother Junior Moore Friday. He had just been taken to Sky Rehab in Bowling Green, KY. where he's expected to be two weeks. In a few weeks, he's to be fitted with a temporary prostheses before getting a permanent one later. His leg was amputated above the knee. He has a wonderful outlook for how the Lord is going to use him now.

Brother Moore said he's had his guitar and sang and witnessed everywhere he was allowed. He really misses his Waffle House ministry and looks forward to returning as soon as possible. Last year he preached in nine states over a seven month span and is willing to go wherever he has the opportunity. I asked Brother Junior to come preach at Faith when he was able. He said he had never been here and would love to preach here. His family that sang here in December reported to him they really enjoyed their visit with us. He had hoped to be with them but his leg problem had him down.

The prayers of God's people, Brother Junior said, kept a smile on his face during this ordeal. He wanted me to thank you that prayed for him and asks for our continued prayer support during his recovery and adjustment.

We talked about some writing Brother Moore is starting. He has several ideas to write about. The subject he is writing about now has to do with ministers and their calling in hopes for them to find the work God wants them to do no matter what or where it is. He spoke of one brother who preaches at nine nursing homes every month and is looking to add more. There is much work to be done and too many preachers not doing much. Another topic he and I discussed is how a church should choose a pastor.

There is going to be a benefit singing for Brother Moore on Saturday, February 1st at 6:00 PM at the Roxy Theater, 109 South Main Street (Hwy 31 / 100) just off the square in Franklin, KY. The Sacred Harmony group as well as several other singers will be there. He said people from several states have told him they were coming. If he's allowed, he hopes to be there for a little while.

No birthday's or Anniversary's this week.
