When we Pray, God hears more than we say,
Answers more than we ask,
Gives more than we imagine....
In HIS own time and HIS own way.

Ruth Hassell passed away last week. Ruth has been a Member here since October 31, 1959.

Chad's father was moved from the hospital to rehab. He should be home soon. Remember him as he continues to improve. Pray for his soul. He has not been saved.

Cindy's sister has no sight in one eye and is losing sight in the other.

Burt had problems breathing last week.

Donald had tests last week and they got the greatest news. The cancer is still decreasing in size.

Remember the Maggarts two sons. Both were raised in the church and both have been saved. The youngest is going to church but the oldest not so much.

Remember the Bobo family in West Tennessee.

Forget about the past, you can't change it.

Forget about the future, you can't predict it.

Forget about the present, I didn't get you one.

*Happy Birthday

Pastor's Comments

Sister Ruth Hassell went to be with the Lord this week. What a wonderful person I found her to be and was grateful to have the privilege of conducting her funeral service. Pray for Brother E. W. to be comforted in his loss as well as their children and their families.

As many of you know, Sister Ruth wrote many poems. Here is one which was read at her funeral:

When I Leave This World Behind

by Ruth Hassell

When I leave this world behind,
Don't say that I was good or kind.
Don't say that I was meek or bold,
Just say the good Lord saved my soul.

Don't point out things that I have touched,
Possessions do not count for much.
But in the bible we are told,
The saved shall walk on streets of gold.

Don't have them sing my favorite song,
Don't tell of clubs where I belonged.
Just say that I'm (this means so much),
A member of Faith Baptist Church.

If I should leave without goodbyes,
To meet my Savior in the skies,
If I should suffer bitter pain,
With joy and peace, I'll live again.

Don't say I've had a wretched life,
That I've had troubles, I've had strife.
For I know now, I've always known,
I don't deserve the love He's shown.
