Cindy asked prayer for a friend who is dealing with cancer.

Remember those caring for a family member.

Irene is not here today, she is with Adam. He had to have all his wisdom teeth pulled Friday.

I am asking for prayers for a church that is very dear to my heart. Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Drasco Arkansas, is a little band that was started as a mission by my Uncle Elder M.V. Hammack. Bro. Hammack left the comfort of his home in Indiana in the late 1980's where he pastored churches such as Faith MBC, Kokomo MBC and Harmony MBC. He felt the burden to start the mission in a little building in Pleasant Plains and it prospered. After a few years and the sweet salvation of a number of souls the mission felt the need to organize. They built (done by the members of the church) a beautiful church building. The church prospered greatly under Bro. Hammack as the pastor but, in the early 2000's he was hit by a drunk driver and his health slowly faded until he passed away in 2007. He was certainly a great soldier for the Lord. The church has also began to fade away dwindling now to only 6 or fewer attending on Sunday Mornings. She has been without a pastor for almost 8 years. This little church is situated in a great place to see so many lost souls saved because the truth is not being preached in that part of Arkansas. She is the only Old Time Missionary Baptist Church in that area. I had the great privilege to preach there in October and the spirit was there in a great way. The members that are there are so hungry to see the church revived but, I fear without a pastor it cannot. They have at times considered closing the doors but the Lord just will not let them. Without "Hope" there is no hope for that part of the state. I beg you to pray for the church! If you have any questions please do not hesitate to message me on here for more information. May God Bless each and everyone of you! Taylor Gregory

December	4th

Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, 'I bet you don't know what day this is?' 'Of course I do,' he answered indignantly, as he slammed the door, and drove to his office.

At 11 o'clock, the doorbell rang. The wife answered, and there at her front door was a UPS driver, in his hand was a box containing 12 red roses.

Later, at 2 pm there was another knock at the door, this time it was a deluxe box of Belgian chocolates.

Eventually the husband came home, tired after a hard day's work. His wife greeted him by saying: 'First the flowers, then the chocolates, I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!'

Pastor's Comments

Three funerals on Friday:

I attended the funeral of James Newton, Sister Joyce Parker's brother, Friday afternoon and got to meet her family. One speaker, a life long friend, shared some stories of Mr. Newton's life as well as , some humorous incidents, which reflected his character and uprightness in his life. The 1st Baptist Church pastor offered words of comfort and kindness. According to Sister Joyce, several in her family are lost or, at least, haven't given sufficient testimony of an experiences of grace. Pray for this family.

Also on Friday, Brother Norman "Shorty" Patterson of Lafayette was buried. I've known him for most of my ministry through seeing him at revival and special services in a several county area. He has two sons, Terry and Charlie, who both are Missionary Baptist preachers, and two daughters, Deborah and Susie. Brother Terry and Sister Deborah are quite like their dad, where as, Brother Charlie and Sister Susie are big cut-ups. Brother Norman would just smile and and shake his head when he'd watch either one of them and me fuss and aggravate each other. I often asked him how he fathered two such as them.

Thirdly, Brother Sammy Cornwell was laid to rest on Friday. Though he was an educator, superintendent of Trousdale County schools for eight years, and worked for the State Department of Education,
I knew him for his dedication to teaching shape note gospel music, leading singing, and compiling a series of six song books entitled "Songs To Remember", some of which Faith Church has. Brother Cornwell was helpful to numbers of churches by lending or giving them pianos and providing his song books to churches that could not afford them. He was a dedicated friend to the last Elder R. D. Brooks and helped him in starting three churches. Brother Sammy gave and loaned money for the building of those church buildings. He was somewhat eccentric, but a great help in the advancement of congregational singing and the Lord's cause in this area.
